FIRE RECORD.

Chiesgo, 5.—Inter-Ocean's Hartford:
Of 106 towns heard from this morning, republicans carry 61, democrats 36, and 9 towns which were democratic in 1876 are now equally divided between the two parties, the rule of pacificaries being the politics of the majority of the board of registration of voters. The two clerks and selectman, Comparing with 1876 the republicans gain 1840was, and the democrats 6, and the 9 divided towns were democratic in 1876 and are therefore republican gains. The constitutional amendment giving the appointment of judges of courts to the governor is carried by a large majority. There are three reasons amendment giving the appointment of judges of courts to the governor is carried by a large majority. There are 167 towns in the state, and it is believed the gains in the towns to hear from will be in the above proportion. The result is regarded by republicans as in overy way favorable to the proposets of republicans throughout the state. The registry law is much more favorable to the honest vote than in 1876. Business mean and manufacturers are satisfied with the present prosperity. Working men fear the result of democratic trickery, with the tariff, all of which adds strength to republicans.

New York, 5.—Specials say Grant, in alting of Hanock, says: He is crazy to be president. He is ambitiour, vain and weak. He gave an sathentic version of order number forty, and told that it hung only on the fact that he was opposed to in great domination," as he termed it.
